

Fed up with endless employee management “paperwork?”

Bogged down with administrative tasks that consume up to 30% of your schedule?

Tired of organizing endless spread sheets, docs and scribbled notes that make your job harder?

What you need is a 24/7 on-call assistant!

Here’s one that’s so cost effective, you’ll be a hero to your supervisor!

Dear Manager,

It never ends, does it?

Your staff or your supervisor pulling at you in different directions—wanting your time and efforts for their needs. You put out one fire – then another one pops up and takes all your attention.

Then, you have to expand your efforts on monitoring employee performances, tracking attendance, and monitoring their incidents.

If this time-sucking activity makes you want to shout to the heavens for relief then I have a solution for you. It’s called Manager Assistant 2.0., a complete turn-key software that’ll make your life easier and boost your productivity.

Just imagine, at the click of a mouse you can automate all your employee management tasks. Now, you can focus less on endless administrative duties --- and more on what you really need to do: manage!

Mildred Ellison of ESPN says, "I really do think this is the best management tool out there!"

We agree, which is why we want you to try our user-friendly solution FREE for 30-Days. Just visit www.managerassistant.com today, or call right now 1-813-264-1100

As an innovative software, Manager Assistant 2.0 allows you to quickly track and evaluate all the activities of your team.

Just think, within just one application you can now organize and update employee information – fast.

Best of all, you can choose from two versions, single or multi-user versions which allows all your manager to benefit.

Here are 5 Ways Manager Assistant 2.0 Does the heavy lifting for you.

You could...

1. In calendar or table view simply track employee attendance. No more guesswork as to who is present or who is not!
2. Generate professional-quality performance reviews in just minutes, instead of hours. (Software comes with thousands of sample text bullets with unlimited use)
3. Point, click and quickly update employee records in no time. Set reminders for birthdays, reviews, vacations, salary increases, etc.
4. Create valuable manager reports, high-light visually stunning charts and graphics.
5. Easily schedule and track training programs for each employee

And so much more...

In fact, Manager Assistant 2.0's stress-free software even makes it easy to manage complex employee accrual plants. This is why Keith Wrisley of Panasonic calls it, "One-stop shopping to keep track of my team!"

Automate YOUR Daily Tasks and give yourself 36 Extra days of FREEDOM!
